

FACILITY RENTAL INFORMATION

the eisner - american museum of advertising & design

208 North Water Street • Milwaukee, WI 53202
Phone: 414.847.3290 • Fax: 414.847.3299
Contact: Katie Sorenson / Program Director Email Address: ksorenso@eisnermuseum.org

description

The Eisner- American Museum of Advertising & Design is a unique combination of the worlds of advertising and related design. Explore aspects of Americana, cultural history, or even broadcast your own radio commercial. Every exhibit contains at least one interactive component. For the ultimate visitor experience, the Museum has at least five to six exhibits on view at any time, with shows changing every few months. Plan your next business meeting or social gathering at the only interactive advertising Museum in America.

museum capacity

auditorium	table seating for 80 persons available up to 180 persons for lecture/reception style (chairs only) maximum capacity of 225 persons (some standing) exhibit area	suggested capacity of 650 persons • maximum capacity 850 persons for availability, or to reserve a date, please contact katie sorensen, program director, at 414.847.3285
rental rates	rates vary according to rental needs and requests restrictions	smoke free facility other guidelines provided upon request catering	see preferred caterers' list
accessibility	wheelchair/stroller accessible

Miscellaneous: The Eisner – American Museum of Advertising & Design is located in the Historic Third Ward of downtown Milwaukee where hotels, shopping, entertainment, restaurants, and parking are available.